

Rhythm & Poetry: Rap, Hip-hop and Spoken Word

Open to care experienced young people aged between 14 and 26

Dates: 19th to 21st October 2020

Location: Moniack Mhor Creative Writing Centre, Kiltarlity, Beauly, IV4 7HT

Ross Carbarns; better known by his stage name Butterscotch, is an MC, DJ and Hip Hop recording artist based in Inverness. Ross is a music mentor through Music Plus and Musicares and is also a part of Glasgow's Being MC collective. Actively involved in the live music scene, Ross fronts Highland based Hip Hop outfit Spring Break, who won the "Best Hip Hop" category at 2015's SAMA awards.

Jenny Lindsay is one of Scotland's best-known spoken word performers. Her spoken word, theatre and music organisation, Flint and Pitch, was included in The List Magazine's Hot 100 for 2017. As an independent programmer and promoter of poetry, live literature and spoken word, Jenny has been credited with contributing to a thriving live poetry scene in Scotland. In December 2017 she was awarded the Creative Edinburgh Award for Leadership for her work in the spoken word sector.

Joined by Steve Bull - Steve is a sound engineer and will work with young people to record what they produce.

Because of Covid 19 guidelines this will be a much smaller event than usual to enable social distancing, sadly we cannot offer overnight accommodation.

For further information about the course, or to book a place, please contact:

Andy andy@moniackmhor.org.uk or call on 07741 910 999